

Investment Agreement

Parties:

- Investor: Craig G. Lewis
- Recipient: Fabo Hax

Date: June 15, 2024

1. Investment Amount:

- The Investor agrees to provide $1,000 USD to the Recipient for the purpose of investing in the SOL/USDC liquidity pool on Raydium.

2. Investment Purpose:

- The investment will be used exclusively for the SOL/USDC liquidity pool on Raydium to generate returns through fees.

3. ROI Expectations and Distribution:

- The goal is to achieve daily returns of 1-3% on the investment.
- The returns will be distributed as follows:
 - 1% daily return: ~$300/month, to be used primarily for the Recipient's expenses.
 - 2% daily return: ~$600/month, split equally between the Investor and the Recipient ($300 each).
 - 3% daily return: ~$900/month, split as follows:
 - 300$ to the Investor

"Everybody wants to rule the world / I can't stand this indecision / Married with a lack of vision"

- 300$ to the Recipient
- 300$ to be reinvested in the liquidity pool.

4. Payout Schedule:

- The Recipient will ensure that a minimum of $350 is allocated monthly for their personal expenses before any reinvestment of returns.
- Returns will be calculated and payouts made at the end of each month.

5. Reinvestment Plan:

- In the case of achieving a 3% daily return, 1% of the returns will be reinvested back into the liquidity pool to compound the investment.

6. Reporting and Transparency:

- The Recipient will provide weekly reports on the performance of the investment to the Investor.
- Reports will include details on returns, fees generated, and the current balance of the liquidity pool.

7. Duration and Termination:

- This agreement will commence on June 15, 2024, and will continue until mutually agreed upon by both parties.
- Either party can terminate the agreement with a 30-day notice. In the event of termination, the remaining funds and any accrued returns will be split equally between the Investor and the Recipient.

"Everybody wants to rule the world / I can't stand this indecision / Married with a lack of vision"

8. Risk Acknowledgment:

- The Investor acknowledges the risks associated with DeFi investments, including market volatility and potential losses.
- The Recipient agrees to manage the investment to the best of their ability but does not guarantee specific returns.

9. Legal and Tax Considerations:

- Both parties are responsible for understanding and complying with any legal or tax obligations related to this investment.
